Michail Mutafchiev, Owner & CEO

Michail Mutafchiev (Mike Scorpio) was born in 1968 in Sofia, Bulgaria. Even as university student his entrepreneurial spirit manifested when he started his own Foreign Exchange Bureau "ESTEL," where he gained valuable experience on international trade and foreign exchange.

In 1992 he sold his shares in ESTEL" and came to South Africa.

The next year he established Mike Scorpio Export-Import CC, and in 2000 created Flora Town, a BEE consortium in the agriculture and flower business.

Biobrand Invest

Focusing on the export of fresh flowers from South Africa to Bulgaria, Michail in 1993 registered Mike Scorpio Export-Import Cc which became one of the leading exporters and importers in fresh cut flowers in South Africa.

In 2000 Michail created Floratown Flowers & Trade (Pty.) Ltd as a BEE consortium in the agriculture and flower business. The company combined the markets and the efforts of the growers, agent and wholesalers into one major force in the flower industry.

Floratown Flowers & Trade (Pty.) Ltd. become a recognised sponsor of the Nelson Mandela's Children Fund and according to the Guinness Book Of Records produced the biggest flower bouquet in the world in September 2001 at Sandton Fountain Court.

In 2006 he registered Biobrand Invest as a CC. with the purpose to introduce in South Africa modern bottling and food processing technologies from Bulgaria, which after several years become reality and in 2012 he register BIOBRAND INVEST CC in to (PTY) Ltd in order to accommodate and attract different shareholders.

Bulgarian – SA Community & Church Involvement

Michail has also been socially and culturally active in his new homeland.

He founded the "The Bulgarian Christian and Cultural Centre" NPO in South Africa and organised several Bulgarian cultural events for preserving and exchanging the Bulgarian culture and traditions.

In 2008, after constant participation and strong perseverance uniting the Bulgarians leaving in the territory of GP with the help of both Bulgarian and South African governments, he has founded a Bulgarian Sunday school known under the name of "SLANCHO".

In 2009 as a chairman of the BCCC he received the blessings from the Saint Sinod in Bulgaria and the Orthodox Pope of Alexandria Theodor the II for establishment of Bulgarian Orthodox Church Organisation amongst the Bulgarians living in South Africa.
